Presents

THE BOB AND HELGA WOLF PUBLIC POLICY LECTURE
Co-sponsored by the World Affairs Council of Inland Southern California

“Health Care Crisis in Southern California: Can We Improve Health Care and Reduce Costs?”

Thursday, May 21, 7:00 – 8:30 pm
Victoria Club
2521 Arroyo Drive, Riverside, CA 92506

Dessert and beverages will be served

Robert M. Kaplan
Fred W. & Pamela K. Wasserman Distinguished Professor of Health Services
UCLA School of Public Health

Robert M. Kaplan is the Fred W. and Pamela K. Wasserman Distinguished Professor and Chair of the Department of Health Services in the School of Public Health and Distinguished Professor in the Department of Medicine. He is the Principal Investigator of the UCLA/RAND CDC Prevention Research Center and Director of the UCLA/RAND Health Services Research training program. Dr. Kaplan is a past president of the American Psychological Association Division of Health Psychology, International Society for Quality of Life Research, Society for Behavioral Medicine, and Academy of Behavioral Medicine Research. He is a member of the Institute of Medicine of the National Academies of Science, Editor-in-Chief of Health Psychology, and a proud UCR alumnus.

Please RSVP by May 10
to tracy.cordova@ucr.edu or 951-827-4290