

CHASS Dean's Office Application for Travel Scholarship Funds

All applicants to CHASS "At Home in The World" Endowed Student Award Fund and Judith Stolpa Neveau International Studies Endowed Scholarship Fund must submit a completed application with other requested materials in order to be considered.

APPLICANT INFORMATION

Name:

Email Address:

Major:

Cumulative GPA:

Class standing during term abroad:

TRAVEL INFORMATION

Name of EAP or OAP being pursued (if applicable):

Program dates:

Have you applied to this program?

If No, when will you apply?

Yes

No

Have you been accepted into this program?

If No, when will you be notified of your acceptance?

Yes

No

If you are pursuing independent study, service learning, research, or an internship abroad (instead of a formal EAP or OAP), please provide background on these plans to inform the committee of your intentions abroad. Please include information such as travel dates, project or internship details, acceptance status, and faculty mentorship.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Do you qualify for financial aid? Financial aid includes grants, scholarships, or loans from the UCR financial aid office, or financial support from an outside source.

Yes

No

Please describe the costs associated with your program/plans, financial limitations, and any secured or pending funds from other sources.

NOTE: After notification of an award and in advance of award disbursement or initiation of travel, student must demonstrate that:

- He/she/they is registered for academic credit via study abroad or independent study credits for a project related to an international experience;
- If applicable, he/she/they is working with a faculty member on a plan for the research project, service learning opportunity, or other international experience being funded through this award.